

THE OLIN T. BINKLEY MEMORIAL BAPTIST CHURCH

MAY 5, 2019

THE SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTERTIDE

BECOMING AWARE

Finally, this call - toward living lives of love-in-action - is what all the “signs and wonders” in John are for in the first place: to draw our attention, to open our hearts and minds to God’s right-side-upping of the world, and to inspire us to play our part in this dawning era of abundant grace. Even the signs and wonders themselves are too many to count! In one of the most charming final sentences in scripture, John ends this way: “But there are also many other things that Jesus did; if every one of them were written down, I suppose that the world itself could not contain the books that would be written” (John 21:25).

Peter Said, "I'm Going Fishing"

BEECHER

Peter said, "I'm going fishing," so his friends went out with him.
Through the night, they labored, watching, Hauling empty nets back in.
In the grey of early morning, Jesus, you came walking by.
From the beach you called a greeting, "Cast out on the other side!"
Soon their nets were filled to brimming; Someone cried, "It is the Lord!"
Jumping in, he started swimming; Christ, you met him on the shore.
Guiding them to better waters, Eating fish, and sharing bread —
You showed Peter and the others: You were risen from the dead!

GIVING & SENDING

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

Lord of the Dance

John Ferguson

I danced in the morning when the world was begun,
And I danced in the moon and the stars and the sun,
And I came down from heaven and I danced on the earth;
At Bethlehem I had my birth.

*Dance, then, wherever you may be;
I am the Lord of the dance, said he,
And I'll lead you all, wherever you may be,
And I'll lead you all in the dance, said he.*

I danced for the scribe and the Pharisee,
But they wouldn't dance and they wouldn't follow me;
I danced for the fishermen, for James and John;
They came with me and the dance went on.
I danced on the Sabbath and I cured the lame:
The holy people said it was a shame.
They whipped and they stripped and they hung me on high,
And they left me there on a cross to die.

I danced on a Friday when the sky turned black,
It's hard to dance with the devil on your back,
They buried my body and they thought I'd gone;
But I am the dance, and I still go on:

They cut me down and I lept up high:
I am the life that'll never, never die.
I'll live in you if you'll live in me:
I am the Lord of the dance, said he.

THE INVITATION TO CHRIST'S TABLE

Holy Communion is a sacred and central part of Christian worship. It is a holy act, in which we, individually and corporately, commune with the Loving God. We welcome all who desire a deepened relationship with Christ to the Communion table. From time to time, questions arise concerning the participation of young children in this congregation's service of Holy Communion. The Diaconate recognizes that two historic Baptist principles inform this decision. Baptists are set apart from many other Christian traditions by our practice of Believer's Baptism, which signifies full membership in the church. Traditionally, many Baptist churches encourage persons to receive the Communion bread and cup for the first time after they have been baptized. At the same time, our historic insistence on Soul Liberty reminds us that Baptists value and respect each believer's unique and personal relationship with God. The Diaconate thus recommends that all members of Binkley continue to deepen their understanding of the meaning of Holy Communion, and that families enter into a time of discernment concerning when their children are able to appreciate the sacred nature of Communion. We affirm the responsibility of all believers to determine whether and when they and their children will partake of the Communion elements as we all participate in the service of Communion.

THE DISCRETIONARY FUND

Today you are invited to make a special offering to the Pastor Discretionary Fund. This fund allows Binkley to support our church and community members who are in financial crisis. Earmark any checks "Discretionary Fund" in the item section. Envelopes are available in the chair racks.

Will they have the necessary resources in place to hire more diverse teachers and front office, bi-lingual staff? Board Chair Brenda Stephens, Vice Chair Sarah Smylie, and Superintendent Todd Wirt will be at the meeting to report on promising developments. Meanwhile, extremely low income residents face a crisis of displacement and homelessness in Chapel Hill. The first clients have moved into housing under the Justice United's Master Leasing Plan. We will celebrate this success and chart a path toward a more inclusive and affordable community. The assembly is at Lattisville Grove Missionary Baptist Church, 1701 Jimmy Ed Rd., Hurdle Mills. 7:30 to 9:00 PM. Gathering begins at 7:00 PM. A free bus will leave from St. Thomas More Church at 6:30 p.m. Carpools can also be arranged.
