Something 'Bout Believing

Duke Ellington

Something 'bout believing that keeps me unfolding. Something 'bout believing that makes my soul sing. Something 'bout believing that keeps me holding on to God Almighty. Something 'bout believing that helps my mending, something 'bout believing that there's no ending, believing all the way because I'm depending on the God Almighty. I don't light a lamp to see the Sun, Don't need proof of God, because I know that there ain't a-gonna be but One. Something 'bout believing in God's creation, something 'bout believing the incarnation. Something 'bout believing that all our nations are under God Almighty. I want to be hip, I want to be cool, I got to be with it all the way, because I ain't about to be no fool. Something 'bout believing that's greater than pleasure, Something 'bout believing that's more than treasure, Something 'bout believing that's beyond measure, Just one God Almighty. Something 'bout believing that keeps me going, something 'bout believing my faith is growing. Something 'bout believing that keeps me knowing, I'll see God Almighty.

Come Sunday

Ellington

Lord, dear Lord above, God almighty, God of love, please look down and see my people through. I believe that God put sun and moon up in the sky. I don't mind the gray skies 'cause they're just clouds passing by. Heaven is a goodness time. A brighter light on high. Do unto others as you would have them do to you. And have a brighter by and by. Lord, dear Lord above, God almighty, God of love, please look down and see my people through. I believe God is now, was then and always will be. With God's blessing we can make it through eternity. Lord, dear Lord above, God almighty, God of love, please look down and see my people through.

CELEBRATION OF COMMUNION: A JOYFUL EUCHARIST

Today, we celebrate communion by intinction, or dipping the bread into the cup. Starting with the front pews in each section, you are invited to exit the pew row to the right aisle, receive the bread and dip it into the cup, then return by the left aisle. If mobility is a concern, please remain seated and signal that you'd like the symbols to be brought to you. All bread is gluten free.

Please use this time to pass the peace with one another and to joyfully celebrate God's great love revealed in the life, death, resurrection, and ascension of Christ, as well as the gift of the Holy Spirit outpoured on God's beloved people.

GIVING & RESPONDING

OFFERTORY

God Bless the Child

Holiday/Herzog

Them that's got shall get
Them that's not shall lose
So the Bible says and it still is news
Mama may have, Papa may have
But God bless the child that's got his own, that's got
his own
Yes the strong get more
While the weak ones fade
Empty pockets don't ever make the grade
Mama may have, Papa may have
But God bless the child that's got his own, that's got
his own

Money, you've got lots of friends
They're crowding around your door
But when you're gone and spending ends
They don't come no more
Rich relations give crusts of bread and such
You can help yourself, but don't take too much
Mama may have, Papa may have
But God bless the child that's got his own, that's got
his own

* DOXOLOGY

THE INVITATION TO CHRIST'S TABLE

Holy Communion is a sacred and central part of Christian worship. It is a holy act, in which we, individually and corporately, commune with the Loving God. We welcome all who desire a deepened relationship with Christ to the Communion table. From time to time, questions arise concerning the participation of young children in this congregation's service of Holy Communion. The Diaconate recognizes that two historic Baptist principles inform this decision. Baptists are set apart from many other Christian traditions by our practice of Believer's Baptism, which signifies full membership in the church. Traditionally, many Baptist churches encourage persons to receive the Communion bread and cup for the first time after they have been baptized. At the same time, our historic insistence on Soul Liberty reminds us that Baptists value and respect each believer's unique and personal relationship with God. The Diaconate thus recommends that all members of Binkley continue to deepen their understanding of the meaning of Holy Communion, and that families enter into a time of discernment concerning when their children are able to appreciate the sacred nature of Communion. We affirm the responsibility of all believers to determine whether and when they and their children will partake of the Communion elements as we all participate in the service of Communion.

THE DISCRETIONARY FUND

Today you are invited to make a special offering to the Pastor Discretionary Fund. This fund allows Binkley to support our church and community members who are in financial crisis. Earmark any checks "Discretionary Fund" in the item section. Envelopes are available in the chair racks.

A “Peace Lab” Thank You

Every summer, dedicated volunteers – both youth and adults—create a loving, fun, and memorable week at Binkley. This year, we learned about how to have peace within, how to live peacefully with our neighbors, and how to further peace with the Earth through sustainable practices. Thanks to all of the many wonderful adult and youth volunteers! Because of your faithfulness, all of the 37 children who attended felt God’s love and joy, and learned about the peace God wants for the world. Together, we raised an offering of $316.00 to help our sisters and brothers at Hope Flowers School, south of Bethlehem, to get some much needed new playground/recreational supplies! Thanks be to God!

RENEWING THE SOUL OF WORSHIP CHURCH-WIDE RETREAT

JULY 20-22, 2018

BLOWING ROCK RETREAT CENTER

Every summer, Binkley folks of all ages retreat to the mountains to relax, play, worship, and get to know one another away from normal routines and stresses. What a gift to be able to sip coffee and share stories over breakfast, to sing around a campfire, to play cards or make a puzzle with children of all ages!

Brad Berglund

This year, our focus turns to worship and its enlivening place in our spiritual journeys as individuals and as a faith community. Brad Berglund, author of Reinventing Sundays, as well as a gifted musician and minister, will be our guide. All ages will appreciate Brad's personal, creative, and engaging style. There will also be time for nature hikes, arts and crafts, a scavenger hunt, outdoor games, and a yearly tradition: a delightful talent show on Saturday evening. No talent too small!

Brad heads up an ecumenical ministry that of worship consulting and renewal seminars. In addition to working with churches throughout the world, Brad and his wife, Rita, who hail from Colorado, lead pilgrimages and retreats.

Please contact Stephanie Ford if you have questions. The retreat begins Friday evening and concludes on Sunday morning; 4 meals and 2 nights. Registration deadline is July 10
