For every government consists of mere (humans) and is,

‘Thus saith the Lord,’ it lies, and lies dangerously.’*

WHERE THE MUSIC BEGAN: Hymn Sing and Choral Scholar Fundraiser: Saturday, July 27, 6 pm, Gerrard Hall, UNC Campus:

Don't miss the culminating event of Binkley's 60th Anniversary Celebration. We will return to the place where it all began, Gerrard Hall on the UNC Campus, where our congregation worshipped before our current home at Willow Drive was constructed. Rev. Dr. Robert Seymour will offer remarks on Binkley's history of social justice in the Chapel Hill community. A hymn sing, silent auction, and ice cream social will complete the evening. Donations and silent auction proceeds will benefit Binkley's Choral Scholar Program. Donations are needed for the silent auction: please see Sarah Hill McIntyre in the narthex after worship or contact her at shcolwell@gmail.com to learn how to participate.

LUNCH AND LEARN: The Faith of a Skeptic: Sunday, July 28, Post-worship, Lounge. Join Tom Lentz, author of The Faith of a Skeptic: Seeking Truth and Balance in Religion and Politics, for lunch and presentation on his book. Tom is the brother of Binkley member Julie Lentz. As a minister, he has served congregations in Ohio, Florida, and the U.S. Virgin Islands. Robert Seymour has praised the book, saying: "...I felt like you were speaking to me from page one. The Faith of a Skeptic is a wonderful resource about things in the Bible that many Christians do not know. ... You know the mind of a skeptic and answer many questions asked." If you would like to order the book prior to the lunch and learn, it is available on Amazon or through CSS Publishing Company: 800-241-4056. Reservations required for lunch: please let the office know you are coming by July 23. Donations for lunch taken at the door.

MOCK EMERGENCY LUNCH: Mark July 28 on your calendar for a mock emergency lunch. As part of our Simply Summer worship experience, we will learn about how our church can be a well-prepared host during a real emergency such as flooding, hurricanes, or extended power outages. Those who participate will partake in the lunch after worship along with invited guests from the Chapel Hill Community. Volunteer opportunities and supply needs will be announced soon.

The Binkley Peace and Justice Action Group is pleased to report that the Orange County Bail/ Bond Justice Project is already making a difference. Below are key actions in the 2nd quarter (April-June 2019) and next steps.

Key Project Actions April 2019-June 2019

- Conducted daily court observations At least 2 trained Court Observation Team members were present each day to document how bail was set, then entered data into a Bail/Bond Justice Project database for future assessment.
- Conducted our second court observation training on June 11 attended by 28 people, including representatives from Kehillah Synagogue, Hillsborough Presbyterian, Hillsborough Unitarian Universalist, Binkley Baptist, Hillsborough Persisters, Carolina Justice Policy Center, ACLU, and UNC-Law School.
- With assistance of Carolina Justice Policy Center, researched community bail funds across the US, including how they are administered and eligibility criteria for use of the bail funds.
- Applied for and was designated as a 2019 Binkley-Barbee's Yard Sale recipient. The money will help establish a Revolving Bail Fund for people in Orange County unable to pay their bail.
- Began formation of a Project Steering Committee with partners from faith-based communities, NAACP, and justice impacted people in the community.

Next Steps

- Launch Project Steering Committee.
- Continue daily court observations.
- Begin fund raising for the Bail Fund for Orange County.
- Obtain Magistrate's data. To-date, we've not received data from our public records request.

For more information about the Bail/Bond Justice Project email info@ocbailbondjustice.org.
